IN submitting this, the fifth edition of the Directory to the Alumni of Columbia College, attention is again called to the importance of giving the Secretary immediate notice of any change of addresses. For this reason any information which will give the present address of any alumnus whose address does not appear, or the change of any address which should be made or information concerning any other inaccuracy, is earnestly requested.

The assistance of the Assistant Secretary of the University in making this Directory as accurate as possible, is hereby gratefully acknowledged.

A new feature has been introduced by adding the Constitution and By-Laws of the Association of the Alumni of Columbia College, owing to frequent requests of the Alumni for copies thereof.

Believing that the name of every living graduate appears in this edition of the Directory, it is respectfully submitted to the Alumni of Columbia.

SEC. 4.—The officers of said corporation shall be, until otherwise prescribed by their constitution, a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer, who, with twelve other members to be elected at a general or special meeting, shall be the standing committee of said corporation.

Powers of Standing Committee.

SEC. 5.—Such standing committee shall have such powers as shall be lawfully conferred on them by the constitution and by-laws of the corporation, and they and the said officers shall hold their offices for such time and in such manner as such constitution and by-laws shall prescribe.

Of the Constitution and By-Laws.

SEC. 6.—Such constitution and by-laws may declare what number of members shall constitute a quorum at meetings of the standing committee, and provide for the manner of admitting and suspending and removing members and officers of the corporation.

Limited liability.

SEC. 7.—The said corporation shall be subject to and have the rights conferred by the general provisions contained in the third title of the eighteenth chapter of the first part of the Revised Statutes, except that no member of said corporation shall be liable for any debts or liabilities of the same, unless on an agreement in writing to be subscribed by such member and expressly binding him.

SEC. 8.—The said corporation, hereby constituted, may take real and personal estate by will, but subject to the general provisions of the act relating to wills, passed April thirteenth, eighteen hundred and sixty, chapter three hundred and sixty.

Power to receive bequests.

SEC. 9.—The several officers of said association existing at the time of the passage of this act shall hold their respective offices as officers of this corporation, with the powers and duties prescribed by the constitution and by-laws of said association, until their successors shall be elected or appointed. Further, all property, rights and interests of said association shall by virtue of this act vest in and become the property of this corporation.

Merging of old Association into corporation.

SEC. 10.—All interest of any member of said corporation in its property shall terminate and vest in the corporation upon his ceasing to be a member thereof by death, resignation, expulsion or otherwise.

Termination of member's interest.

SEC. 11.—The Legislature may at any time alter, amend, or repeal this act.

Amendments.

SEC. 12.—This act shall take effect immediately.

Date in effect.

STATE OF NEW YORK,
OFFICE OF THE SECRETARY OF STATE } ss :

I have compared the preceding with the original law on file in this office, and do hereby certify that the same is a correct transcript therefrom, and of the whole of said original law.

Given under my hand and seal of office, of the Secretary of State, at the city of Albany, this 10th day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four.

DIEDRICH WILLERS, JR.,
Secretary of State.

CONSTITUTION.

THE ASSOCIATION OF THE ALUMNI OF COLUMBIA COLLEGE, entertaining a grateful sense of obligation to their Alma Mater for the intellectual and moral training received within her walls, and desirous of perpetuating the friendships established during their course in college, and of promoting the true interests, influence and efficiency of Columbia College as an institution of sound learning and practical education, the better to secure these ends, do hereby accept the act of incorporation granted to them by an act of the Legislature of the State of New York, passed May 21st, 1874, entitled "An Act to Incorporate the Association of the Alumni of Columbia College."

Preamble.

The Association thus incorporated adopts the following as the Constitution of said corporation.

ARTICLE I.

SEC. 1.—The present members of this corporation are Henry Drisler, Frederic De Peyster, J. Howard Van Amringe, Seth Low, Henry James Anderson, William Mitchell, Charles R. Swords, George P. Quackenbos, Charles A. Stillman, Edward Mitchell, William H. Butterworth, Joseph Bayley Lawrence, Henry R. Beekman, William Bayard Cutting, James McNamee and John McL. Nash, forming the present Officers and Standing Committee of the Association together with such other persons as appear to be members of the late Association on the books of the Treasurer of the same, and not to be in arrear more than two years for dues. A list of such members is hereto annexed, and is hereby adopted and accepted as correct.

Original members of corporation.

SEC. 2.—This corporation will hereafter consist of the same persons, together with such other persons as shall hereafter become members of the same, in such manner and upon such terms as shall from time to time be prescribed in the constitution or by-laws of this corporation.

Membership of corporation.

ARTICLE II.

Classes of members.

SEC. 1.—The members of this corporation shall be classed as regular, associate and honorary members respectively.

Regular
members.

SEC. 2.—Any graduate from the Academic Department of Columbia College, and any graduate from any of the associated Schools of Columbia College who shall have been for at least three years a regular member of the Academic Department, and who shall not have graduated from any other college, may become a regular member of this corporation by signing the roll of the members to be kept by the Treasurer, and paying the dues for one year or for life.

Associate
members.

SEC. 3.—Any person who shall not have graduated from the college, but who shall have been a member of a class in the Academic Department, which shall have graduated, and any graduate from the other departments, may be elected, by the Standing Committee or this Association, an associate member, and become such member on signing such roll, and making such payments as mentioned in the preceding section.

Honorary
members.

SEC. 4.—The President of the College, or any Ex-President, any member or ex-member of the Board of Trustees, or of the Faculty, or any one who shall have received an honorary degree from the College, may be elected, by the Standing Committee or this Association, an honorary member of this corporation.

Privileges of associate and honorary
members.

SEC. 5.—Associate members and honorary members shall be entitled to all the privileges of regular members, except those of voting and holding office.

ARTICLE III.

Dues.

SEC. 1.—Every regular and associate member shall hereafter pay to the Treasurer the sum of two dollars, annually, during the first five years after the graduation of the class to which such member belonged, and five dollars annually thereafter; or in lieu thereof, a life-membership fee of fifty dollars as a commutation for annual dues. The amount now invested in the name of the Association and all moneys paid hereafter as life-membership fees shall be funded under the direction of the Standing Committee, and shall be held as a permanent fund, and the interest only shall be appropriated for the current expenses of this Association.

Permanent fund.

Penalty for dues in arrears.

SEC. 2.—Should any regular or associate member, other than a life member, neglect to pay the said annual dues, and allow the same to become more than one year in arrear, he shall have no vote upon any subject before this Association until he shall have paid the dues in arrear, and the Standing Committee or this Association shall have power to erase his name from the roll of members, and he shall thereupon cease to be a member of this Association until restored by a vote of the Standing Committee or of this Association.

SEC. 3.—The books of the Treasurer shall be the regular evidence of the state of the account of any member on the question of his right to vote, but an error in the same may be subsequently corrected by the Standing Committee or this Association.

Treasurer's books evidence of right to vote.

ARTICLE IV.

SEC. 1.—The officers of this corporation shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer. They shall be elected from the regular members, and with twelve other regular members shall constitute the Standing Committee of this Association.

Officers and Standing Committee.

SEC. 2.—The President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall hold their offices respectively for one year from the first Monday in October, and until their successors shall be duly chosen.

Terms of Officers.

SEC. 3.—The twelve other regular members chosen at the annual election in October, 1874, as members of the Standing Committee shall divide themselves by lot into three classes of equal numbers each.

Terms of Standing Committee.

The first class shall hold office for three years; the second class, two years; and the third class, one year; and thereafter each annual election shall be for four members of the Standing Committee to hold office three years, and for such additional number, if any, as may be necessary to fill vacancies, to hold office during the remainder of the terms of the members whose places they fill.

SEC. 4.—None of the twelve regular members shall be re-elected until at least one year after their term shall have expired, unless by a vote of two-thirds of those voting at the meeting for such election.

Re-election of members
Standing Committee.

ARTICLE V.

SEC. 1.—The President, or in his absence the Vice-President, and in their absence a President pro tempore, to be appointed by the meeting, shall preside at the meetings of this Association.

Presiding Officer.

SEC. 2.—The President shall perform the usual duties of his office. He shall have power to call extra meetings of this Association at his discretion. It shall be his duty to call a meeting thereof, whenever five regular members shall request him in writing to do so.

Duties of President.

Duties of Vice-President.

SEC. 3.—During the absence, illness or other inability of the President to perform any of his duties, the Vice-President shall act as, and shall have all the powers of, the President. In case of the absence, illness or other inability both of the President and Vice-President, the Standing Committee shall appoint a regular member of the Association as temporary President, who shall act as, and have all the powers of, the President, except at meetings of the Association.

ARTICLE VI.

Duties of Secretary.

SEC. 1.—The Secretary of this Association shall also be Secretary of the Standing Committee. He shall have the custody of the Act of Incorporation, and of the Constitution, By-Laws and Records of the late Association, and of this Corporation, and of the Standing Committee; he shall give due notice of all the meetings of this Association by public advertisement, and of such Committee by writing; he shall keep accurate minutes of their proceedings and shall notify officers and committees of their appointment, and of all resolutions or orders appertaining to their respective duties. He shall also have the custody and charge of the seal of the corporation and affix it when required by proper authority so to do.

He shall also prepare a Necrology of the Association for each year, and present it to the Association at its annual meeting. Notice by the Secretary to the Chairman of any sub-committee shall be sufficient, and thereupon such chairman shall notify the other members of his committee.

ARTICLE VII.

Duties of Treasurer.

The Treasurer shall collect and take charge of the funds of the late Association and of this corporation, and shall make such investments and ordinary disbursements as the Standing Committee shall direct. He shall keep a written account of his receipts and payments, and at each annual meeting shall report the same in writing to this Association, when a committee of three regular members shall be appointed to audit his accounts; which committee shall report to this Association or to the Standing Committee, within one year from the date of their appointment, or sooner if required; he shall also report to the Standing Committee the condition of the Treasury whenever required by said Committee so to do.

ARTICLE VIII.

Standing Committee organization and by-laws.

SEC. 1.—The Standing Committee shall meet within one month after the election of officers in each year, and shall proceed to organize by the election of its own Chairman and Vice-Chairman. It shall have power to make by-laws for its own government not inconsistent with this Constitution.

SEC. 2.—It shall be the duty of the Standing Committee to arrange for the annual or more frequent meetings of this Association, and in general to take such action as will best promote the objects of this Association, subject to the limitations contained in the Act of Incorporation or in the Constitution, or as shall be imposed by this Association.

Standing Committee.
Duty of.

SEC. 3.—The Standing Committee shall have power to disburse the funds of this Association to an amount not exceeding in any one year the interest on hand of the permanent fund and the amount of the annual dues and commutation fees of members of this Association. No money or property of this Association shall be in any way disposed of by the Standing Committee, except by the affirmative vote of at least seven members of the Committee.

Standing Committee.
Power to disburse money.

SEC. 4.—The Standing Committee shall have power to appoint sub-committees out of its own number, or from other regular or associate members of this Association, or from both.

Standing Com.
Power to appoint sub-committees.

SEC. 5.—Sub-committees shall be deemed to be continued until discharged by the Standing Committee or this Association, although the term of office of the Standing Committee which appointed them may have expired, in which case they shall report to the successors in office of such Standing Committee or to this Association.

Sub-committees serve until discharged.

SEC. 6.—Absence from two consecutive meetings of the Standing Committee on the part of any member regularly notified to attend the same shall, when brought to the notice of the Committee, be considered a resignation on the part of such member from the Committee, unless the Committee shall excuse such absence; and the Committee shall proceed to fill his place. This section shall not apply to the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer of this Association.

Standing Committee.
Absence from meetings of.

SEC. 7.—The Standing Committee shall have power to accept resignations of officers of this Association and members of the Standing Committee, and to fill by ballot all vacancies that may arise. Appointments thus made shall be until the next annual meeting of this Association and until successors in office shall have been chosen.

Standing Committee.
Power to fill vacancies.

SEC. 8.—The Standing Committee shall every year, through its chairman or vice-chairman, present to the annual meeting of this Association a full report of all its proceedings, and also of such other matters, in the form of recommendations or otherwise, as the Committee may deem proper.

Standing Committee.
Annual report.

ARTICLE IX.

Annual meeting of Association.

An annual meeting of this corporation shall be held on the first Monday of October in each year, for the purposes of business, and literary and social entertainment, under the direction of the Standing Committee, or as soon thereafter as practicable, if the same be not then held.

ARTICLE X.

Quorum.

The presence of fifteen regular members shall be necessary to constitute a quorum of this Association to do business, except where in the Charter a larger number is required; but a smaller number may adjourn from time to time.

ARTICLE XI.

Amendments to Constitution
and By-Laws.

SEC. 1.—Amendments to this Constitution and By-Laws may be proposed at the annual meeting of this Association, or at a special meeting regularly called, and shall lie over for decision to the next annual or special meeting of this Association.

The consent of two-thirds of the regular members present shall be necessary to their adoption.

SEC. 2.—No proposed amendment shall be acted on by this Association, unless by unanimous consent, if more than two years shall have elapsed since the meeting at which such amendment was proposed.

SEC. 3.—The term "this Association," as used in this Constitution, is to be deemed equivalent to "this Corporation."

BY-LAWS.

I.—On the appearance of a quorum, the President, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, or, in their absence, a Chairman to be appointed pro tempore, shall call the Association to order.

If a quorum shall not appear within thirty minutes after the appointed time of meeting, the members present may adjourn ; causing a minute to be made of such adjournment and its cause. They may adjourn to a stated time and place, of which notice shall be given as of a stated meeting.

Failure of quorum.

II.—The order of business shall be as follows :

Order of business.

- 1.—Reading of the minutes of the last meeting and action thereupon.
- 2.—Appointment of tellers to supervise the election of Officers and Standing Committee.
- 3.—Report of the Standing Committee and action thereupon.
- 4.—Report of the Treasurer. Appointment of a Committee of three to audit the same.
- 5.—Report of the Auditing Committee on Treasurer's last Annual Report and action thereupon.
- 6.—Reports of Special Committees and action thereupon.
- 7.—Necrology of the year read by the Secretary.
- 8.—Miscellaneous business.

III.—The rules to be observed in the election of Officers and Standing Committee are as follows :

Rules for elections.

1.—The Chairman of the meeting shall appoint two tellers, who shall preside over the polls, and, at the close of the same, count and report the votes cast for each officer and for each member of the Standing Committee.

Tellers.

Polls open.

2.—The polls shall be opened immediately after the appointment of the tellers, and shall remain open for one hour and no longer.

Members in arrears.

3.—No member in arrears to the Association for dues for more than one year shall be allowed to vote.

Treasurer to provide list.

4.—The Treasurer shall provide the tellers with a list of life members, and of annual members not in arrears to the Association for more than one year.

Method of voting.

5.—Each member in voting shall hand to the tellers two ballots, on one of which shall be inscribed the names of persons whom he desires to be elected as President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, and on the other the names of those he desires to be elected as the members of the Standing Committee, whose places are to be filled.

Majority necessary for officers.

6.—A majority of all the votes duly cast for such office shall be necessary to the election of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer.

7.—The persons receiving the largest number of votes as members of the Standing Committee, but not less than the majority of the ballots cast, shall be declared duly elected members of such Committee, subject to Article IV. Sec. 4 of the Constitution.

Certain votes not to be counted.

8.—Votes cast for persons not regular members of the Association, or for members in arrears to the Association for dues for more than one year shall not be counted.

Time of tellers' report.

9.—The tellers shall report under miscellaneous business.

Provision for second ballot, if necessary.

10.—If it shall appear from the report of the tellers that any one or more of the offices has not been duly filled, or that the full list of the members of the Standing Committee has not been duly elected, the polls shall immediately after such report be re-opened for the purpose of completing the election. In the supplementary ballot (should one be necessary) the votes for the office of President, Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer shall be confined to the two candidates for such office who received the highest number of votes for the office in the first ballot. The polls shall not be open longer than twenty minutes..

Motion in writing, if required.

IV.—No motion or resolution shall be considered unless seconded, and, if required by any member, must be reduced to writing. Motions, however, to lay on the table, to postpone either indefinitely or to a day certain, to commit, or to adjourn, need not be in writing.

V.—If a question under debate contains several distinct propositions, the same shall be divided at the request of any member, and a vote taken separately.

Division of motions.

VI.—Every member present shall vote whenever a question is put, unless excused by the Association.

All present must vote.

VII.—All Special Committees shall be appointed by the Chairman of the meeting, unless otherwise ordered.

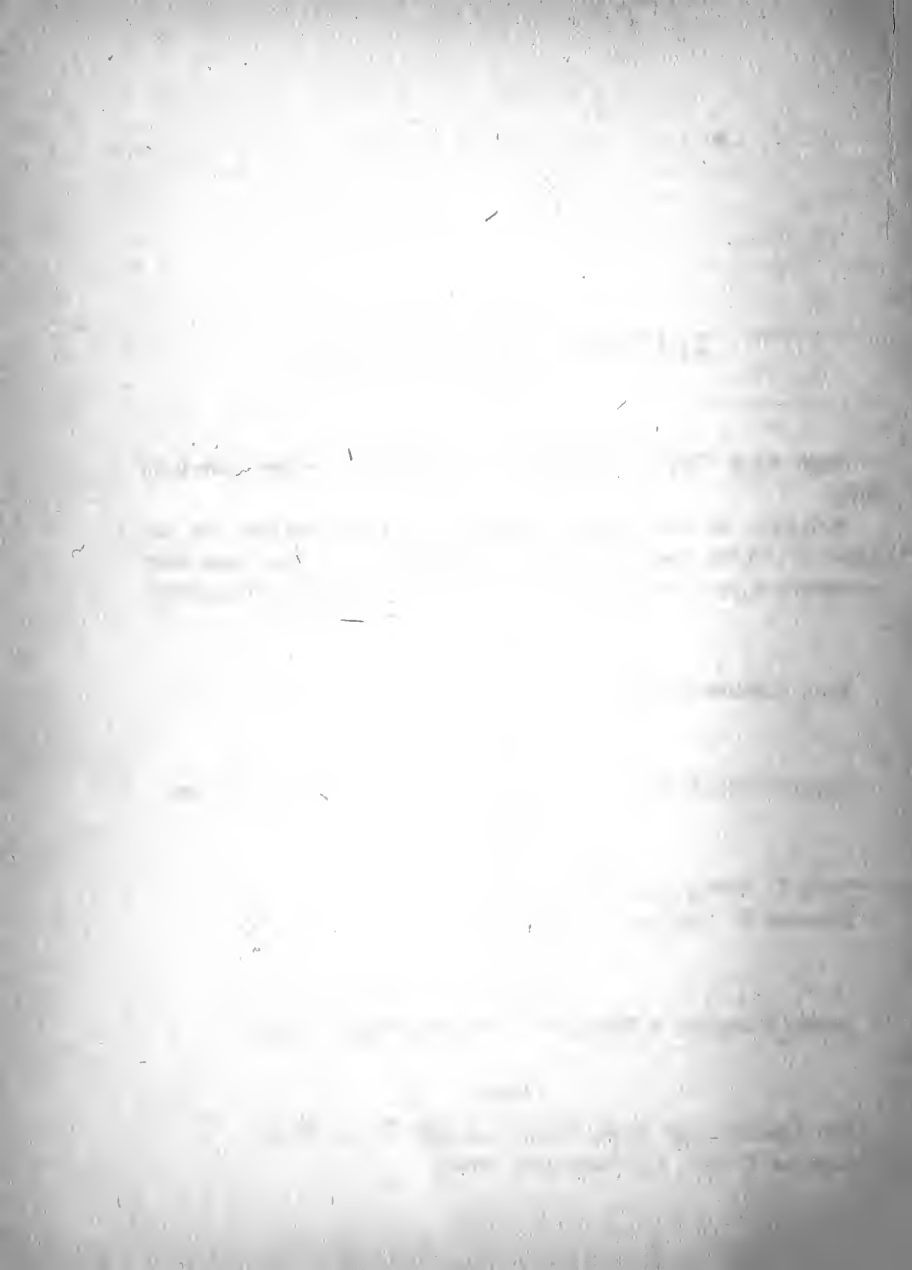

Chair to appoint Special Committees.

VIII.—The reports of all Committees shall be in writing and shall be received without motion for acceptance. They need not be entered upon the minutes unless so ordered. If recommending or requiring any action or expression of opinion by the Association, they shall be accompanied by a resolution or resolutions.

Committee reports in writing.

IX.—A By-Law may be suspended at any meeting by an affirmative vote of two-thirds of those present.

Suspension of By-Laws.
